Visions in Glass

On Thursday, 20th December Visions in Glass will be performing the Christmas panto, "Blondilocks and the Three Brain Cells in the Wicked Will Shock You," held at the Llantilio Pertholey Community Hall (Mardy Hall). Written by Lisa Marie and Emma Jayne, with music from the Westend Musicals We Will Rock You and Wicked. Tickets £5.00 available on the door.

'The Wicked Will Shock You' tells the story of how the world has been taken over by an evil organisation, run by the vile Chiller Queen who captures our heroine, the beautiful but immensely stupid Blondilocks. Her Beau, The handsome Prince Elf Harming travels with her best friends, the Braincells (Mamma, Mia and Figaro) and his fairy godfather, Izzakinda Magic, to the mystical land of Abergavenny where they can find the legendary order of The Visions who will help them to overthrow the Chiller Queen and rescue Blondilocks.
